These two presentations are the features of the evening. The second one, that of the Long Service Medals, is especially worthy of your attendance. Your presence will do honor to these Sir Knights of Pilgrim Commandery who have been faithful members for so many years.

DINNER AT 6:15 P. M.

Dinner will be served at 6:15 p. m. in the Banquet Hall. Tickets 50 cents. Return your post card promptly to insure a place for yourself at dinner.

BAND CONCERT—7:00-7:45 P. M.

by the

Middlesex Training School Band

consisting of 30 pieces

We are to be entertained by these boys through the courtesy of Mr. J. Earl Wotton, Superintendent of the Middlesex County Training School. You will be impressed and delighted by the calibre of music which this band is capable of playing.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE AND PARADE AT CONCORD, MASS.

Sunday, June 3rd, at 2:00 P. M.

As announced in the April notice, a big Knights Templars Day of Patriotism will be held at Concord, Mass., on Sunday, June 3, at 2:00 p. m. with a short parade and appropriate exercises. Pilgrim Commandery will participate. Let us turn out in goodly numbers and thus show our loyalty to the spirit of Templarism.

Those who can furnish their own transportation are asked to do so. Perhaps you can take two or three of your friends along with you.

For those who prefer to go by bus, arrangements have been made to have busses at the Temple at 12:30 p. m. to transport the Sir Knights to Concord, returning after the services. The cost of the round trip will be 40 cents per person. Use reply card to indicate how you will go.
